

State of Texas,

County of Bexar. On this 13th day of March, A.D. 1875, before me, H. Mac Cannall, a Notary Public within and for said County, personally appeared Antonio Coy, a Pension applicant, who upon being duly sworn according to law, declares that he is the identical Antonio Coy, who, in the Revolution which separated Texas from Mexico, served under Captain Luis Sanchez, as a volunteer; that the Company aforesaid was organized in Nacogdoches some time in the year 1836; that in the early part of 1836 he with the rest of the company all under the command of Jack Taylor started from Nacogdoches to join the troops under Gen. Houston; that while on their way the news reached them that the enemy had been defeated at San Jacinto, and at the same time they heard of some depredations that were being committed by Indians in the neighborhood of the Neches River; that they then turned back, got on the track of the Indians followed, overtook, and defeated them, somewhere between the Neches and Trinity Rivers. Deponent further says that previous to this, he thinks, though not certain as to the date - that in 1833 - he was at the battle of Nacogdoches - where the Mexicans under Col. Piedras were defeated, and where Encarnacion Chirino, his captain, was killed - Applicant further states, that at various other times, he was engaged in fights in different ~~commando~~ places under Jack Bay's command. Applicant further states that he was born at Presidio del Rio Grande and
